

The Florida AFL-CIO is continuing our tradition for Organized Labor in Florida by celebrating the Florida Labor Hall of Fame and A. Philip Randolph Award. As part of our Biennial Convention activities, the Florida AFL-CIO will induct members into the Florida Labor Hall of Fame during the Hall of Fame Gala, September 7th, 2019 - a celebration showcasing the men and women of Organized Labor.

This year's nominees for the A. Philip Randolph Award and induction to the Florida Labor Hall of Fame are...

2019 Nominees

JOSEPH BRENNAN
IBEW 1191

PATRICIA EMMERT
IRONWORKERS 402

ULYSSES FLOYD
AFT 7498

YOLANDA JACKSON
AFSCME 3076

LARRY KIDD
IBEW 606

MARGARETTE MACK
APWU 138

JEFFERY MITCHELL
TWU 291

MARK NEIMEISER
AFSCME 1199

JOHN STREATER
AFT 7432

A diverse committee of union members and leaders has been formed and will meet alongside President Mike Williams & Secretary/Treasurer Andrew Spar to determine the award recipients. Up to, but no more than five (5) of the impressive nominees will receive the award. The recipients will be selected following the published criterion designed to evaluate all of the nominees on their record of service to the labor movement, our principles and the working people of Florida.

You can show your support of the 2019 Nominees by making a contribution to the Gala through sponsorship of an ad in the souvenir journal. The sponsorship form is enclosed. Please note, all journal advertisements and payments must be received by August 16th in order to be included.

